CHICAGO, FRIDAY, JULY 13, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS.

SILVERDALE'S EDGEWATER.

That portion of Chicago's population which is interested in racing quite evidently realizes that the magnificent meeting now in progress at Washington Park is rapidly approaching the closing glories of Wheeler Handicap day. The card yesterday was not one of marked strength, yet fully 10,000 spectators were present to attest the great popularity of Washington Park racing, and the general determination to witness as much of it as possible in the space of time yet remaining.

Nominally the Edgewater Stakes was the main feature of the afternoon's sport, but the overshadowing form of Schorr's pair, Alard Scheck and Silverdale, sufficed to bring about the scratching of Admonition, Forkford and Sculptress and Schorr withdrew his filly Lady Schorr. So the field was reduced to five starters, with the Schorr pair overwhelming favorites on the estimated certainty that either could win. The outcome emphatically demonstrated the correctness of public opinion. The stable declared to win with Silverdale, so Knight shot him to the front and took up the running at once and was the leader to the end Alard Scheck, under restraint, acted the part of convoy throughout, ready to come to the rescue if danger should threaten. But none of the other starters was sufficiently speedy to disturb Silverdale, so Alard Scheck, hard held, took in the $900 allotted the second horse and his stable companion won on sufferance. Green Morris' Vitellius ran his best race and thereby landed the meager honors and pelf attaching to third place. It was the second running of the Edgewater and the second time it has fallen to the Schorr stable, W. Overton having won it in 1898. Its net value to the winner yesterday was $1,890.

The second race was the medium of introducing a sprinter of great merit to the patrons of Washington Park, one that so far this year has a record of uniform success. This was the horse George Arnold, freshly brought up from St. Louis, where he had repeatedly demonstrated his speed this summer. Pat Dunne's fast colt Reminder dashed into the lead directly after the barrier ascended and set a hot pace around to the stretch with George Arnold, running within handy striking distance. In the stretch Vandusen brought George Arnold up and at the finish won by a narrow margin, yet with the evident ability to have made it a wide one had it been deemed desirable. Some interest will attach to George Arnold's clashing with May Beach, Sly, Georgie and the other best sprinters now abiding in Chicago.

Gold Fox won the mile and an eighth handicap without turning a hair. Up to this race the handicaps at the track have resulted in contests of rare excellence and interest, but in this Gold Fox had nothing to beat except two mediocre three-year-olds and sour-tempered old Donna Rita. Dissolute displayed a fine turn of speed, but it was of no avail, for when Bullman released Gold Fox from his restraining hold the good colt strode by Dissolute and won looking around at the ladies in the grand stand.

Crosby, with Bullman up, proved equal to annexing the opening mile dash in handy fashion and fast time, and Mellocole showed his versatility, when, as the absolute outsider in the quotations, he managed to scramble home in front of Toribio in the fourth race of the day by a very narrow margin. Vohicer ran in humble obscurity in this race and was promptly claimed by J. H. Smith.

The favorite, Limerick, somewhat unlucky heretofore, was an easy winner in the concluding race of the day and as he was "boosted" to the extent of $500 afterward his success was barren of profit to his owner unless via the bookies' bank rolls.

A special sweepstakes of great interest has been arranged for next week. Garry Hermann, Miss Bennett and Golden Age are to meet at six furlongs for $500 each, and the club is to add $1,000.

YEARLINGS TO BE SOLD.

At the Union Stock Yards pavilion, next Monday and Tuesday evenings, Woodard & Shanklin will conduct an important sale of thoroughbred yearlings. The crop of yearlings this year is short compared with former recent years and so nearly the entire crop has already been sold in New York, that this sale represents about the only chance western owners will have to replenish their stables with a view to contending for the two-year-old prizes of 1901. The catalogue calls for the disposal of 118 youngsters. Among the consignments are the following:

Mr. O. H. Chenault, Spendthrift Stud, 29 head, by Spendthrift, Hindoo, Hanover, Onondaga, Hermence, Falsetto, Eon, Charaxus.

Col. W. S. Barnes, Melbourne Stud, 10 head, the get of Prince of Monaco, Jim Gore, St. George and Forester.

Gen. W. H. Jackson, Belle Meade Stud, 31 head, sons and daughters of Iroquois, Loyalist, Longstreet, Fonso, Inspector B., Clarendon, Dandie Dinmont.

Fleetwood Stud, 12 head, the get of Aintree, St. Saviour and Portland.

S. K. Hughes & Co., five head, by Lazzarone, Deceiver and Julien.

From studs of Messrs. Woodford Bros., Catesby Woodford and Colonel Clay of Paris, a carload, including the get of Leonatus, Fonso, Hindoo, Sir Dixon, Teuton and Burlington.

Major Thomas of Dixiana sends two by Dr. MacBride and two by Longflight, while the rest are made up of the get of Victory, Ben Strome, Major Richards, Owes, De Beauvoir and the consignment of Wagners from Mr. W. M. Fields' place. There are four by this famous sire and as good individuals as ever left Kentucky.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"Gene" Leigh's horses in training will be sold at auction in New York Saturday. Commenting on this sale a New York newspaper says:

"Horsemen generally were surprised when it was announced that H. Eugene Leigh would sell all his horses in training and retire for a time from active participation in turf battles. Mr. Leigh has been so successful thus far this season that many wondered why he had reached this decision. He stated that pressing private business forced him to give up racing for a time, and as he preferred to train his own stable had decided to sell rather than have them handled by others.

"The horses will be sold next Saturday under the auspices of the American Horse Exchange, in the saddling paddock of the Brighton Beach race track. The sale will begin at 1 o'clock, p. m.

"Among the horses to be offered are Ildrim, Vulcan, King Bramble, Nansen, Inishfree, Delmarch and Ziegfeld. The latter two are promising 2-year-olds; the others are 3-year-olds.

"Ildrim is unquestionably one of the best, (if not the best), three-year-old in the country. His win of the Belmont stakes at Morris Park, as well as his sensational second to Prince of Melbourne in the Realization at Sheepshead Bay, stamped him a colt of the highest class. Those trainers who discussed the sale yesterday expressed the opinion that he would bring

FEATHERSTONE MAY RACE ABROAD.

For some time past the rumor has been current that Mr. A. Featherstone is dissatisfied with racing at the New York tracks and has about made up his mind to take his stable to England next year. Of this matter Morning Telegraph of Tuesday said:

"Julius Bauer was early out with the first set of the Featherstone string. They did a pretty gallop in the mud, bunched. The crack colt Black Fox was among the horses, moving in his usual brilliant fashion. When this youngster is at his best and Commando meet there will be a horse race. The other sets were given the same routine work, and afterwards a set of a dozen yearlings occupied Trainer Bauer's attention. The latter make a good appearance. The whole of the twenty-two head which Mr. Featherstone has represents a nice snug fortune.

"If Mr. Featherstone adheres to his present intention the youngsters may winter in England. The recent action of the stewards in setting down Mr. Featherstone's jockey so frequently may have a lot to do with his statement on Saturday that he would ship his entire stable to England at the close of the fall meeting at Westchester.

"Whether O'Connor was to blame or not for the accident that occurred at Sheepshead Bay the writer does not wish to argue. But certain it is that many good judges who witnessed the accident say that O'Connor was the sufferer and not in any way to blame for the occurrence. Had O'Connor won with Andronicus the ring would have been severely scorched, as the horse was backed by his owner to win a fortune.

"During the present season O'Connor has ridden fairly and brilliantly, and on several occasions has caused several noted turf writers to eulogize his work. In his mounts on outside horses this season O'Connor has been very successful, and his mounts have been backed freely by Mr. Featherstone.

"There is no doubt but that the bookmakers have felt this keenly. And more than one noted turfman has noticed that whether O'Connor is riding a horse the property of his own stable or otherwise, he is riding all the time to win his master's bets.

"Of late there has been a rumor current that some persons have approached several noted jockeys and tried in every possible way imaginable to get them to lodge complaints against O'Connor, to try by this means to incense the stewards against him. The instigators of this should be found out at once, and the Jockey Club should probe right into the matter.

"Mr. Featherstone has a powerful stable, and the frequent setting down of his jockey causes him to scratch his horses. The Featherstone stable has been a popular one. In fact the present owner, by his liberal and democratic ways, has made himself popular with the horse owners from the humblest ranks to the highest.

"Should he adhere to his present intention of shipping his stable to England his loss will be deeply felt in this country by breeders and the Jockey Club. One has only to look at the various programs of the race tracks here to appreciate Mr. Featherstone's liberality in stake engagements. His forfeits alone mean a fortune annually.

"Whether he ships to England or not the Jockey Club should hunt up at once the parties that are endeavoring to get prominent jockeys to lodge complaints against O'Connor.

"Western horsemen have always stated that the poor showing made by many of their best horses has been caused by our eastern tracks being too deep and heavy. Looking over the great time made by horses in the various events at the Brighton Beach race track since the opening day on Friday last, westerners will have little cause to complain, as the Brighton Beach track bids fair to be the fastest in this country. There is no doubt but that Jack Point would have broken all records over a mile and a quarter on Saturday had not the recent heavy thunder showers made the track a little slow.

"All the western horsemen are jubilant over the splendid condition of the Brighton Beach track. They all say that Superintendent Clare has struck the magic wand in the right course this year."

FOLLOWING THE PLUNGERS.

Concerning a feature of the New York betting rings, one duplicated daily in Chicago, Leander Richardson, writes in this entertaining fashion: "Persons who have nothing special to interest them can extract a good deal of interest from a half hour or so spent watchfully upon the fringe of the betting ring. It is here that information of various sorts goes flying about from lip to lip in the most spirited way, and the varying effects it has upon different people are striking to behold.

"There are great numbers of men—probably running up into the hundreds—who hang breathlessly upon the movements of the best known bettors, and if they happen to know the onlooker they will come galloping up to him with an air of the utmost importance and exclaim, as though conveying some piece of news that is about to shake the world to its foundations: 'Pittsburg Phil is playing His Royal Highness,' or 'David Gideon is backing Maximo Gomez,' or 'Riley Grannan just told a friend he didn't think Goddess of Night could lose.'

"It is amazing to see what a swarm of small fry will go trailing off after rumors of this kind to venture their money in the wake of Mr. Smith, Mr. Gideon or Mr. Grannan. They don't seem to realize that any of the well known bettors ever lose, but proceed upon the general theory that these men either know more than anybody else about the condition and capabilities of the different horses, or are in with 'something doing.' As a fact, the populace at large would be astounded to know of some of the streaks of bad luck inevitably encountered from time to time by the men whose bets run away up into the thousands of dollars when they think their chances of winning are good. When people hear that Mr. Smith has not picked up a bet in two or three days, they wink with sly knowingness, as much as to say it is all right and he is simply trying to throw off the public.

"When Mr. Gideon observes to his friends that he is many thousands of dollars behind upon the meeting in hand, and one of these friends indiscreetly mentions the matter outside, there is a feeling that Mr. Gideon is planting some diabolical plot to pull off a good thing without exciting suspicion.

"The mass of 'little fellows' are persuaded that if they follow the big bettors they will win, not realizing that these men are on hand every day and possess a capital sufficient to enable them to stand a series of losses and win everything back in a whacking big bet when they find themselves rightly placed.

"The writer happens to be in the way of knowing that in three consecutive days at Sheepshead Bay Mr. Smith lost a little more than $48,000.

"The small players who followed him consistently during that period, if any there were, might certainly have been engaged in a healthier occupation, and it is a sure thing that they believe he was darkly scheming for their deceit and discomfiture by putting small bets on the horses that lost, and secretly unloading extensive bundles of currency upon those that won."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

the highest price of any horse sold this year.

"Ildrim has several important engagements for the balance of the season, the most valuable of which is the Annual Champion of $20,000 to be run at the autumn meeting at Sheephead Bay. On past performance Ildrim seems to have this race at his mercy, as few of those eligible appear to have any chance with him.

"Vulcan is a more than useful colt, while the others are good enough to win anywhere with proper management in placing."

A dispatch from Lexington to a Cincinnati newspaper of yesterday says: "To the astonishment of his friends Starter James B. Ferguson, who for a week was believed to be in a dying condition, today left his bed in St. Joseph's hospital and insisted on being driven to 'Kingston,' the farm which his wife sold on Monday to Ex-Senator Bronston for $30,000. His nurse, Miss Viola Jensen, of Louisville, could do nothing with him. He ordered a carriage and compelled the driver to land him in a cottage on the farm, where he went to bed. His friends say that he has lost his mind. Phil T. Chinn and his wife, who is Mr. Ferguson's daughter, have been telegraphed to in New York to come to Lexington at once."

Sidney Lucas' performance Wednesday aroused horsemen to make the most complimentary remarks of the great colt. Green Morris said: "He can beat any horse in the east at age and weight over a distance." Johnny Huffman, who once trained Yo Tambein and now has Milwaukee, said: "He is the best horse I ever saw. Milwaukee is no common dog and the way he raced my horse but shows what Lucas is." Johnny Schorr said: "He is the best horse in the west and it will be easy for him to beat them at the weights." "Kid" Weller thinks Lucas the best 3-year-old in America. —The Chronicle.

The other day a comedian known as Snitz Edwards approached the Teutonic Mr. Walbaum in the bookmakers' inclosure, and expressed a desire to bet $30 upon a horse that did not look particularly likely to win. Mr. Walbaum took the money and said, scathingly: "Iss dat bet on der leffel?"

"Of course it is," responded the actor, with a touch of indignation in his tone.

"By chinks," resumed Walbaum, earnestly, "you ought to be a goot comedian. You dry so hardt to make beople laugh."

Winner—B. c, by Long Dance—Legacy.
Went to post at 2:47. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won all out; second easily. Dousterswivel should have won. He had the path, but allowed Allowance to get up on the rail in the last sixteenth and get the race in the final stride. Lizzie Kelly kept to the outside fence all the way. Passaic tired in the stretch.

Scratched—19167 Eleven Bells, 90.

Winner—Ch. c, by St. Saviour—Bandala.
Went to post at 3:20. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. San Luis beat the others to the path, and that settled it. Marcy ran well. Amoroso was forced into the bad going at the head of the stretch and was anchored there. Ida Quicklime was slow to get to going, but finished strongly.

Overweights—Marcy, 1 pound; Prince of Song, 4.

Winner—Ch. h, by Strathmore—Black Maria.
Went to post at 4:27. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second easily. Rochester got to the strip on the stretch turn first and opened up a gap. Captive caught him again at the eighth post and attempted to come through on the rail, but Irven pulled in and shut him off. He then went to the outside and Irven pulled out and bumped Captive, almost knocking him off his stride. It was a bumping match from the sixteenth post home. M. Murphy was carried to defeat in going the first five and a half furlongs. Irven was suspended and his license recommended revoked. Captive was bid up $105, but was retained.

Captive, place, 2 to 5; show, out. M. Murphy, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Kittie Regent, show, 9 to 10. Rochester, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Time, 12, 24, 49, 1:14, 1:40.

Winner—B. g. by Newcastle—Willow. Went to post at 2:30. At post 22 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. The next three were doing their best. Crosby was the best at the post. was lucky in getting away and won all the way. Chappaqua had no excuses, was well ridden and ran his best race. Little Reggie got away none too well, was interfered with often and everything considered, ran a fine race but was lucky to be third. La Vega would have beaten him for third place had Walsh been more active when the pinch came. La Vega was in and out and in fact ridden all over the track. Leando ran a good race as did Johnny McHale, who was interfered with often. Troubaline was in a jam at the start and had no chance after that. The same comment applies to Brulare. Evidently Josephine B.'s hard race of the day before told on her.

Overweights—Crosby, 5 pounds; Little Reggie, 1; Leando, 14; Barney F., 14; Johnny McHale, 14.

Crosby, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Chappaqua, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Little Reggie, show, 4 to 1.

19192 SECOND RACE—Woodlawn Course. (3/4 mile and 55 yards.) $500 added. $75 to second; $25 to third. All ages. Allowances.

Winner—Ch. h. by Sir Dixon—Dione. Went to post at 3:10. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a drive; second and third were doing their best. George Arnold was the best horse and had to be to win. Vandusen managed to get away in front, but had bad racing luck and the horse had no chance to show his full speed until the stretch was reached, then he finished with a tremendous rush. Reminder is certainly a coward. He was away flying, had all the best of it throughout, but hung when the pinch came. Devin rode a poor race on Star Chime. He tried several times to go through an impossible opening and eventually had to take the long route. Possart was in and out and all over the track and ran well.

Overweights—Isabinda, 34 pounds. George Arnold, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Reminder, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Star Chime, place, 6 to 5; show, out.

Winner—Ch. c. by Favard—Golden Rod II. Went to post at 3:45. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Silverdale got away flying, showed a high order of speed, but had no chance whatever of beating Alard Scheck. The latter is a high class youngster and Burns had to pull him to Silverdale. With Silverdale out in front Burns simply held Alard Scheck all the way. This is all there was to the race. Scratched—19068 Lady Schorr, 120; 19099 Admonition, 113; 19099 Forkford, 113; 19082 Sculp-tress, 110.

Winner—Ch. h. by Melodrama—Mamie Cole. Went to post at 4:20. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive of two. Mellocole, under a lazy ride, came to life suddenly and won all the way. Toribio was perhaps the best, but Mellocole managed to nose him out. The latter's race was a marked improvement over his recent performances. Ennomia was bumped and jostled throughout and, everything considered, ran a good race. Vohicer ran below his true form and after the race was claimed by J. H. Smith. Elkin was sore and sulked all the way.

Overweights—Elkin, 1 pound; Major Mansir, 44. Mellocole, place, 10 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Toribio, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Ennomia, show, 1 to 3. Vohicer, place, 3 to 5; show, out.

Winner—Ch. c. by Silver Fox—Carita. Went to post at 4:45. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second and third doing their best. Gold Fox was the best, was in a soft spot and won like a good racehorse should. He is a colt of fair class and is entitled to consideration wherever he is placed. Dissolute showed a fine turn of speed all the way, but was simply outclassed. The Bobby did all that he could. So did Donna Rita. The race was between the first two all the way.

Scratched—19080 Prince Blazes, 100; 17305 Warrior, 90. Overweights—Donna Rita, 2 pounds. Gold Fox, place, 2 to 1; show, out. Dissolute, place, 4 to 5; show, out. The Bobby, place, 6 to 5; show, out. Donna Rita, place 8 to 5; show, out.

Winner—Ch. g. by Tammany—Bean Catcher. Went to post at 5:15. At post 15 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third driving. Limerick was the best, was best ridden and won as he pleased. Burns was always in a good position and held the others safe all the way. Midwood had no excuses and ran his best race. Limelight is a good mauler. Clara Wooley was interfered with, had a rough journey, but ran a good race after she came into the stretch. Vain acted badly at the post, and by the time the race was run was too tired to show much speed. Fair Deceiver showed her usual amount of speed, but tired in the stretch.

Corrected weights—Clara Wooley, 88 pounds. Overweights—Orion, 1 pound. Limerick, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Midwood, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Limelight, show, 8 to 5. Vain, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.
